Torrential rain impacted much of the pre Christmas cricket in this season, causing many matches to be drawn. The impact was still being felt in the last week of December 1934. The Ringwood and Ferntree Gully Shire Councils set up flood relief funds for residents impacted. Games Impacted highlighted thus - %

Result: Boronia won Outright by 100 runs

Ferntree Gully's cause was not helped when George Meredith, star top order bat, was absent owing to a severe ankle break on the morning of the Semi Final. The teams having been handed to the Umpires prevented Ferntree Gully from substituting another player for him! Unfortunately Gerry Fountain also had a serious accident in the week leading up to the final day of the Semi Final rendering the Gully two short (both batsmen of repute) in their second innings chase.
