LADDER POSITION: Last of 12 teams

At the commencement of the season the RDCA had 12 Clubs affiliated to continue cricket throughout the 1944/45 season, but were still hampered by forfeits, lop sided matches as a result of player shortages and travel restrictions.

We often fielded reduced numbers in matches throughout the season which culminated in a final round forfeit against South Warrandyte when insufficient players and a fully fuelled vehicle were available for the trip to South Warrandyte's ground
