Result: Emerald won on first innings by 162 runs

3/1/1914 CAMHA The return cricket match; FERNTREE GULLY vs EMERALD took place on Saturday (26/12/1913). Captain Brooker of Emerald, whose good luck in spinning the coin is proverbial, had the choice, and on a superb wicket, sent in E. Fisher with himself to do battle for the locals, the captain falling an easy victim to Black after making three. Heppner, a new man, added six, when he lost his leg stump to Black. Smethurst filled the vacant crease, but only to see Fisher bowled and caught by Black for 13. A.V. Nobelius filling the vacancy a fine stand was made, the score being carried from 49 to 90 when Smethurst fell a victim to a smart catch by Devonshire off Black.

C.P. Nobelius then took strike and some forceful cricket ensued before he retired 83 not out, which included four sixers. Black, not to be denied, secured A.V.'s wicket when the batsman had made 32. W. Hunt, bowled by Wright, made 42, leaving that very promising colt A. Borland, not out 12. Emerald's innings closed for 232 runs. After a slight adjournment Wright and Black essayed on behalf of Ferntree Gully to top Emeralds score. Both were speedily disposed of and their places filled by A. Jennings and L. Minns, when some cricket of a high class order was given before Jennings fell, bowled by A.V. Nobelius and Smethurst filled the vacancy, only to see Minns caught of A.V. Nobelius.

The remaining batsmen failed to reach double figures and the Innings closed for 70 runs; Jennings 14 and Minns 22 being the principal scorers for the Gully. A.V. Nobelius, 6 wickets for 31 runs, and C.P. Nobelius, 3 wickets for 4 runs were absolutely unplayable, whilst Black, 5 wickets for 78 runs, did yeoman work for the Gully. After cricket all adjourned to the hall where afternoon tea and eatables, supplied by Messrs Brooker, Fisher and Nobelius, were partaken of before departing to catch the 7 p.m. train. A welcome innovation by our worthy Dr. Simpson in the rendering of Scottish music on the bagpipes was highly appreciated, quite a moistening in the eye of several clansmen present was noticeable.

31/1/1914 PORTS On Monday (Foundation Day – 26th January) the Stars (PORT MELBOURNE SILVER STARS) were pitted against the FERNTREE GULLY C.C., and expected to find a more difficult task set them, but events proved that such was not the case as they ran out very easy winners by 39 runs on the first innings.

The scores were FERNTREE GULLY 36 runs, STARS first innings 75 runs, second innings 79 runs. The individuals who distinguished themselves in the batting department were A. Dredge 24 runs, J. Turner 23 runs, W. Coxon 18 & 11, A.B. Harper 18 & 13; and in the bowling A. Dredge 4 wickets for 18 runs and W. Coxon 5 wickets for 19 runs. Ernest was the only one that walking home part of the programme fell to, as he got the only pair of ducks. Alf is in great form now and we are after the scalp of the Notting Hill team today.

20/2/1914 BHR CROYDON put up their best performance of the year by dismissing the GULLY for 68 then following up with 91 themselves. The GULLY started splendidly having CROYDON 3/0 and 6/18 before a partnership between O. Booth and B. Cheong got them ahead on first Innings.

They weren't as successful in the second innings with the GULLY batsmen making 8/125 Dec. then promptly dismissing CROYDON for 38. The match ended in a victory for the GULLY by 64 runs. CROYDON's only response now can be that they gave the GULLY a scare and something to ruminate upon when the final series begins.

21/2/1914 PORTS On Saturday (14/2/1914) the STARS visited Ferntree Gully, and played against their first eleven, and after disposing of them for the meagre total of 45 runs, closed their innings 8 wickets down for 141 runs. The individuals who distinguished themselves with the bat were R. Tracey 19, W. Coxon 16, Mr. Dougherty 10, A.B. Harper 9, J. Turner 21, "Mr. Sundries", who was the highest scorer of the match with 22 runs and H. Mitchell 13. With the ball, J. Paton 6 wickets for 21 runs, W. Coxon 4 wickets for 14 were the best.

James took two splendid catches, one of them disposing of the most dangerous batsman in the opposing side; J. Gott. Herbert was indeed a surprise packet, probably because he had his mascot with him. The worthy captain took a splendid catch, but there is reason to believe that nobody was more surprised than himself, except the secretary.

Result: Surrey Hills won by 16 runs on first innings, after FTG was 1/97 in pursuit of 171 overnight

13/3/1914 BHR At the Semi Final between these two teams played on the East Burwood Ground; there were a fair number of spectators waiting with anxiety to see how Geo. Williams (FTGCC Capt.) would get his weakish team up against the SURREY HILLS lads. FERNTREE GULLY have never disguised the fact that they have a strong bowling line up and Len Smith, a past master of the art, with 8/48 against a team that has won the competition three times, will testify to that. He bowled with vigour but also contributed 13 times to the Surreys total, with no balls. Paddy Gilchrist who has bowled over 1000 balls this season with an Average of 6.4 bowled well but it was not his day out. What he lacked with the ball, however, he made up with the bat seeing the GULLYITES to a very sound 1/97 at stumps and he personally racking up 62 not out in 55 minutes batting time. The SURREYS score of 171 is a good one for a junior competition but the GULLY is now 1/97 at Stumps and most believe they have the upper hand.

20/3/1914 BHR The GULLY resumed their chase for 171 runs but were dismissed shy of the required total by 16 runs for 155. Paddy Gilchrist was unlucky not to score a century being out on 90 but the downfall of the GULLY'S chase were three needless run outs. The SURREYS were 7/228 when stumps were drawn, all the GULLY players attempting a bowl.

21/3/1914 PREST THE CLUB ELEVEN. The club eleven journeyed to Ferntree Gully last Saturday. The home team provided motors to convey the visitors to the ground, which is situated some 4 miles from the railway station. NORTHCOTE won the toss and decided to send the locals in to bat, who, with the exception of two of the batsmen, could do nothing with the bowling, and were disposed of for 80 runs (Minns 42, Jennings 23; Price 5 for 25, Andrew 4 for 52). NORTHCOTE opened with Dunn and Andrew, the colts of the team, and at call of time 6 wickets were down for 146 (Dunn 39 retired, Heron 47 retired, Price 28, Cowley 12 not out). NORTHCOTE won by 4 wickets and 66 runs, Tea was provided at the local hotel, and was thoroughly enjoyed, likewise the musical programme that followed. Songs were rendered by the Misses Ball (2), Tobin, Andrew, Dunn, Wheeldon, Ashworth and Heron, The drive back to the station was beautiful, a full moon just rising over the ranges. Everybody voted the trip the best the team has had.

Result: Ferntree Gully won by 33 runs on first innings

26/3/1914 DA FERNTREE GULLY CR'S & OFFICERS v. F.T.G.C.C.: The annual match was held on the Recreation Ground on Saturday last (21/3/1914). Cr. Monk captained the Council team, while Mr. Geo. Williams had command of the F.T.G.C.C. The council went in first, and put up the respectable score of 106, of which A.R. Pickett carried his bat for 56; Cr.'s Kerr, Mahoney and Treasurer Jamieson being the other top scorers.

The "Banker" and the "Aura colt" were the first to open up the boundary line which counts 4. On the opponents taking the wickets the seven dangerous batsmen were secured for 52. The council then held the C.C. too cheap and varied their bowling, with the result that the four back men made 87, including 49 for Clohesy, L. Black 15, H. Westley 14, M.C. Campbell 9, resulting in the unexpected win for the club by 33 runs.

27/3/1914 BHR COUNCILLORS AT CRICKET: The annual cricket match between Ferntree Gully Councillors and others and the Ferntree Gully Cricket Club took place on Saturday and was thoroughly enjoyed. The game was full of surprises. The Councillors looked like winning again this year after Cr. Mahoney had a merry time for 21 and Dayman A. Pickett had knocked up 30. Cr. Kerr and Treasurer Jamieson were next best, and the score passed the century, which was a really good performance for batsmen who play about one game a year. Cr. Chandler behind the wickets was good enough for anything, and when seven of the clubmen were out for 41 the council debentures were above par, especially after George Williams had been disposed of for nil. But then came the unexpected clarity in Ted Clohesy, who ought to have been playing for the club all the season, and councillors' stocks fell until they were at a discount, the club winning by 33 runs – Refer Scorebook
