NOTE: Overs (8 Ball) & Maidens not recorded in all matches

Other records indicate that Alan Kirkpatrick also made a score of 106 and may also have made a 97 in this season, which suggests that these results can only have been performed in Rnd 2 (Assuming the stumps score on Day 1 was extended on Day 2) and Rnd 9 (2nd Inn).

While the latter is possible it is more likely that his century was scored in the Round 2 match against Upwey. The team was dismissed for 189, of which Maurie Felmingham also made 62.

Proof of his century exists as a Cricket Ball Trophy retained by the club, after it was generously donated back to the club by his son 'Mick' when Alan passed away. Need to check this trophy for a date and/or opponent as it may not have occurred in this round

This match is accompanied by a Photograph taken on the 3rd October (Week 1) when Ferntree Gully were batting for the first ball of the match and season, and included in the following weeks MDFP edition.

Clarrie Talbot (WSCC) recalls he was the bowler and he thinks the batsman was Alan Kirkpatrick
