NOTE: Overs (6 Ball)

In a disappointing season the team struggled to get consistency into their game with the bat and the ball and at one stage were looking at the danger of relegation for the first time in the Club's 1st eleven history. Late season victories against eventual Premiers; Johnson Park and Monbulk (defending only 108) put paid to any chance of this occurring with the star player of the year; Jarrod Bradley stepping up and decimating the batting line-ups of opposing teams after Christmas.

He won the FTGDCA Reeves Shield Bowling Average for the second consecutive season and was also named in the Association team of the year.
